

BOLTON JURY BROUGHT HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Viewed the Jail, Corner Where Carl Etherington Was Lynched and Place Where Howard Was Shot

ATTORNEYS OPENING STATEMENTS TO THE JURY

Spectators Who Were Looking for Sensation Were Disappointed---Jury Returned to Mt. Vernon by Court Officers---Ad- journment Until Monday.

The jury which is to try Lewis J. Bolton arrived in Newark this afternoon at 12:25 and were in charge of Sheriff Peter Parker of Mt. Vernon and Mr. Patrick Purcell, the Knox county court bailiff. They were met at the B. & O. depot by Sheriff P. E. Slabaugh, Prosecuting Attorney Phil B. Smythe and Attorney J. R. Fitzgibbon of counsel for the defense. They were taken up Franklin street to Second, up Second to the canal, then west to the county jail, where they were shown the north entrance and the interior, with its system of doors and locks, thence to the old Stock Exchange, formerly conducted by Bolton, down the south side of the square to the situation of the telephone pole from which Etherington was hanged. The jury then went out to the old "Last Chance" saloon and the scene of the shooting of Howard and other happenings was pointed out to them, after which they returned to the B. & O. depot and took the 1:50 train for home.

The court merely instructed the jury as to their conduct during the visit to Newark at the session this morning and then adjourned the case until Monday morning at 9 o'clock. With the opening statements of state and defense made to the jury in the Bolton case at Mt. Vernon and the visit of the jury to Newark this afternoon, where they went over the scenes of the riots of July 8, which culminated in the Etherington lynching, the opposing forces will rest or their arms until Monday morning, when it is expected the taking of testimony will be commenced at once.

The opening statements, as can be seen, are diametrically opposite, and make the issue distinctly drawn. The state claims that Bolton is responsible as an abettor or procurer, and is prosecuted as a principal, while the defense admits only two things, that a crime was committed and that Bolton was running his saloon contrary to law.

The state's contention, as outlined in the statement, contains nothing that is not known to practically everybody in Newark, and those who expected that the prosecution would spring something sensational (and there were very many) connecting Bolton up with the crime in a manner more culpable than was generally known, were disappointed. Many thought that some of the men now confined in the jail had told something of importance, if there had been anything to tell, but there is no intimation that such is the case.

The statement of the defense, it proven, would establish a complete alibi to all intents and purposes, so that there is no middle ground on the issue that the jury will decide.

Prosecutor Phil B. Smythe began his opening statement to the jury at 2:40 o'clock and spoke in part as follows:

"Notwithstanding the technical language of the indictment the state will not attempt to show that this defendant did any physical act toward breaking into the county jail or personally assisted in the hanging of Carl Etherington, but that he did in the language of the statute aid, abet or procure the commission of the unlawful hanging of Etherington."

"By the proof we expect to show that on the morning of July 8th, a squad of officers arrived in Newark armed with warrants to search three saloons or places where it was supposed intoxicating liquors were being sold and that Etherington was in this squad."

Washington, April 14.—Three thousand rebels are threatening Juarez and the federal authorities of that place are preparing for an attack, according to dispatches here. The federals are outnumbered four to one, and the rebels control all railroads and wires.

El Paso, Tex., April 14.—Feverish haste is displayed in Juarez today, where the soldiers are rushing the defenses to completion and the inhabitants are moving their effects into El Paso. Roofs of the buildings are covered with soldiers, watching for the first indication of Madero's advance. So great is the excitement that it is practically impossible to get accurate information as to what is going on officially.

The revolutionary junta here thinks Madero will attempt to carry Juarez by assault and then demand United States recognition as a belligerent.

MARTIAL LAW AT MUSCATINE

Muscatine, Ia., April 14.—Martial law was declared here at 9 o'clock today, when the state troopers arrived from Davenport and Washington to take charge of the riot which had raged all night.

The rioting began upon the arrival of 25 special detectives imported by button factory operators to awe the 3000 strikers. After a terror-stricken night, the sheriff called for troops at midnight. Early today the 25 detectives were relieved of their badges and clubs and sent out of town. Since then quiet has prevailed.

ADDIE JOSS DIES AT HIS TOLEDO HOME

Toledo, O., April 14.—Addie Joss, the famous Cleveland pitcher, died early today of tubercular meningitis. He had been ill for a couple of weeks and puzzled the doctors as to the exact nature of his illness, but there was no indication of a fatal termination until last night. Joss was 31 years old. He will be buried by the Masons here Monday afternoon.

NEW STATE LIBRARIAN

John H. Newman, Democrat, Succeeds Charles B. Galbreath.

Columbus, O., April 14.—John H. Newman, of Miami county, who was the Democratic candidate for secretary of state in 1908, was elected State Librarian to succeed Charles B. Galbreath, Republican, who has held the office since 1896, when he succeeded the late Joseph P. Smith, of Urbana, who resigned after successfully opposing the fight of the Foraker faction in Republican politics to oust him.

Mr. Newman was elected by the votes of John McSwain, of Wooster, and Frank M. Switzer, of Canton. Democrats, Frank McGraw, of Springfield, the Republican member, voted against making the change.

The new Librarian, who is at present an attaché of the Fire Marshal's office, will assume his duties on July 1, and will receive a salary of $2,000 a year.

SENATORS BY DIRECT ELECTIONS

Measure Passed in House by Vote of 296 to 16

WILL WIN IN SENATE

Campaign Committee Must Publish Contributions Before Elections.

Washington, April 14.—By a vote of 296 to 16 the Democratic house yesterday afternoon passed its first real measure of legislation.

It was the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

Fifteen Republicans and one Democrat—Representative McDermott, from the stockyards district of Chicago—recorded themselves against the measure.

The measure is in substantially the same form and language as the Borah resolution, which the senate debated at length last season. The Republicans of the house made an effort to incorporate the same amendment which Senator Sutherland offered in the senate and which was the cause of the defeat of the measure. This amendment proposes to strike out the clause which gives the state jurisdiction over the election of senators and places it in the hands of the federal government. The Democrats would not stand for this provision and voted it down.

Chairman Rucker of Missouri, who reported the resolution from the committee on the election of the president, vice president and members of congress, also reported the bill requiring campaign committees to publish their contributions before election as well as after. This measure is also on the Democratic program, but it will not be called up until the Canadian reciprocity bill is out of the way.

After six hours of debate all but 15 of the Republicans voted for the passage of the resolution on direct vote for United States senators. The majority of them had stated during the debate that they would support the resolution anyway, because they were convinced the public wanted such a constitutional amendment submitted to the country as quickly as possible.

Those who opposed the resolution on the final vote were:

Republicans—Cannon, Mann, Illinois; Danforth, Dwight, Malby, New York; Dods, Fordney, McMorran, Michigan; Harris, Lawrence, McCall, Wilder, Massachusetts; Hinds, Maine.

CENTRAL BOARD BILL GOES TO CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ---HOT CONTEST IN SENATE

Columbus, O., April 14.—After a spectacular fight in the senate, during which uproarious disorder prevailed for several moments on the floor and Assistant Clerk Floyd A. Hill, at the order of President Hugh Nichols, called the roll without ceasing for nearly an hour, while a fast train on the Big Four was bringing the Cleveland senators to Columbus so they could cast their votes, the Central Board Bill, Governor Harmon's pet measure, was saved, and will be sent to a committee on conference.

The fight was without bitterness on either side so far as could be seen, but was to the knife. Even if the bill is fixed up by the conference committee so that it will be acceptable to both houses, it may be decided unconstitutional by the courts because of a protest which will be filed by Senator Coker L. Doster of Highland county.

The motion to refer the bill to the committee was carried by a purely partisan lineup, the 19 Democrats being arrayed solidly against the unknown phalanx of Republicans.

President Nichols failed to show up at 10 o'clock, the time at which the senate was to have convened. He appeared upon the floor once or twice after that time, but did not call the members to order until 10:15, when it had been learned that the train bearing the Cleveland delegation was an hour late.

The Republicans were impatiently fretting to get to the order of business under which motions may be made, while the Democrats, directed by President Nichols, did everything to make the proceedings as slow as possible. In spite of all that could be done, Senator George C. Cline of Montgomery county, whose motion Wednesday came so near killing the bill, was forced to put his new motion for a committee of conference.

The Republicans, with Senator Edgar Johnson of Cincinnati, coaching them, tried to render the roll call in-

CIRCUIT COURT HAS ANNOUNCED DECISIONS

Art Dover, Confined in Jail on First Degree Murder Charge, Can Be Admitted to Bail—Montella Watha Must Serve His Sentence—City Loses Case to Establish Board of Health—Disposition of Other Cases.

The judges of the circuit court, R. M. Voorhees, R. S. Shields and Lewis K. Powell, convened court on Friday morning, and announced decisions in cases submitted to them not heretofore decided.

When court met here three weeks ago, a very heavy docket confronted them, and the judges of the court were in session every evening considering cases.

The following disposition was made of cases submitted to them:

State against Art Dover, indicted for aiding and assisting in the lynching of Carl Etherington. The defendant filed a motion to discharge, claiming that he should have been brought to trial within two terms of court after the finding of the indictment, and that this had not been done. The court overruled his motion to discharge. On the question to admit to bail the court stated that the motion to admit to bail had not reached the circuit court and that the question was not before the court. The court stated, however, that the matter had been considered and that the court was unanimous in its views as to what should be done if the matter of bail was properly brought before it; but that on the motion to discharge the circuit court would not be justified in disturbing the judgment of the common pleas court. Counsel for defendant stated that it was hoped that the circuit court would have decided the question last week, so that a petition in mandamus could have been filed and determined this week to require the defendant to be admitted to bail.

Immediately after the decision of the circuit court Kibler and Kibler, as attorneys for Dover, prepared and filed this petition in mandamus against Charles W. Seward as judge of the common pleas court, to require him to admit Dover to bail. The judges of the circuit court immediately allowed a peremptory writ of mandamus ordering the judge of the common pleas court to admit Dover to bail in both cases, and ordered the court to fix the bail in the sum of $2,500 in each case. In the aggregate $5,000. Dover will doubtless present his bond to the court Saturday morning.

In the case of the State of Ohio against Edgar Owens, indicted for aiding and assisting in the lynching of Carl Etherington, the court refused to discharge him from the custody of the sheriff. The defendant had filed a motion for discharge, claiming that he should have been brought to trial within two terms of court after the finding of the indictment, but the question of admitting Owens to bail was not brought up in the petition for his discharge, as was done in the Dover case, so that a petition in mandamus to be admitted to bail can yet be filed.

Montella Watha vs. State of Ohio, a petition to reverse the verdict of the Jury and sentence to the penitentiary for twenty years, for aiding and assisting in the hanging of Carl Etherington. The judgment and sentence were affirmed, and the petition in error of Watha was dismissed.

State of Ohio, ex. rel., J. M. Ankele vs. City of Newark, a suit to require defendants to establish a board of health for the City of Newark, and asking that a writ of mandamus issue. An alternative writ was issued upon the filing of the petition. A demurrer was filed by the defendants to the petition. The court stated that the matter for determination by the court is as to whether the demurrer to the petition is or is not well taken. The court stated that it is of the opinion that the demurrer is well taken, and that the petition of relator does not state a good cause of action, and sustained the demurrer.

Conde S. Davidson vs. Jacob Higgins, et al., continued by consent, also: Jas. Lees vs. Elizabeth A. Lees; Fred Scott vs. Frank Scott; J. A. Flory vs. Almon H. Rickett; Howard Ramey vs. Otto G. Runnels; Rose Dolan vs. Mary L. Critchlow; Lewis W. Hedrick vs. Leora J. Hedrick; Joseph Walton vs. Jane Parks; Anna B. Fraser vs. A. M. Rigby, et al.; Jewett Car Co. vs. J. A. Hanna; N. W. Cripps vs. Frank J. Burkhardt, et al.; Albert Schweitzer vs. Leroy Darnold, et al.; Bief J. Johnson vs. B. and O. R. Co.; William Brooks, constable, vs. Joseph Bogardus; Gilbert B. Goff vs. James H. Moore, et al.; State of Ohio, on relation of Albert Weathers vs. William Linke; Al. Weathers vs. State of Ohio; Lillie M. Webb, executor, vs. Taylor Miller.

State of Ohio ex. rel., Hugh B. DeBord vs. City of Newark, judgment of dismissal at costs of plaintiff.

Allen Fitch vs. James Lambert et al., ex-county commissioners of Licking county, judgment of settlement; a suit to restrain the construction of a ditch. Ella L. Foster vs. Mary O. Long, et al., judgment of settlement, an adjustment being made without trial.

Emma B. Shambaugh vs. J. W. Shannon, et al., motion to dismiss appeal sustained.

Came All the Way From New York to Columbus to Argue a Case, Only to Find It Postponed.

Columbus, April 14.—Senator Allee Pomerene came from New York today to argue a case in the supreme court and found it had been postponed. He said he was almost tempted to say "damn." He predicts that the United States senate will pass the direct senatorial election bill, and says Ohio will probably get 20 instead of 21 congressmen. He seemed disappointed over the fate of the uniform text book bill, but refused to discuss progressive legislation in Ohio.

INAUGURATION DATE

Washington, April 14.—A bill changing the date of the inauguration of the president from March 4 to the last Thursday in April was introduced in the house by Representative Henry, chairman of the committee on rules.

A similar bill failed of passage in the last house by one vote.

Another bill introduced by Mr. Henry would make October 12 a national holiday, to be known as "Columbus Day."

TEXT BOOK BILL MEETS ITS DOOM

Only 76 of the 117 House Members Present Voted On Measure

MUSTERED 32 VOTES

Representative W. D. Fulton Voted for Bill—Speaker Roasts Book Trust.

Columbus, April 14.—With the Republicans of the house of representatives sedulously refraining from taking part, thus forcing the Democrats to carry on the debate alone, the uniform text book bill for townships and villages, with an option for cities, was defeated yesterday, receiving only 32 votes. Of the membership of 69 only 27 Democrats favored it, being joined by four Republicans and one independent. Only 76 of the 117 members of the body voted at all, the rest fleeing as if from a plague when the time for the roll call approached.

The defeat of the bill was a signal overthrow for Speaker Samuel J. Vinson of Mercer, the real author of the bill, and a repudiation of the Democratic state platform, which declared for a uniform text book law. The Democrats who opposed the bill either asserted that the plank in the platform was illegitimate or held that the bill did not provide for a uniformity throughout the state.

It was upon an amendment offered by Representative John Cowan of Putnam county, a Democrat, making the provisions compulsory so far as city districts were concerned, that the fight waged. Speaker Vinson boldly asserting that it was offered to kill the measure and pointing to the fact that at the last session a bill carrying that feature was smothered in the common schools committee through the instrumentality of the book trust.

As the senate has refused to pass the Young bill, which is a duplicate of the measure defeated, it is safe to predict that there will be no legislation of this character enacted at the present session.

The debate abounded in sensational utterances one made by Speaker Vinson almost bringing on a personal encounter with Senator Sherman Deaton of Urbana, who attacked the Young bill in the upper branch and made reference to the presiding officer of the house.

This affair was given in yesterday's dispatch to the Advocate. Explanations were subsequently made between Senator Deaton and Speaker Vinson and the latter apologized for his intemperate expression.

The official vote recorded on the bill is as follows:

Yays—Democrats: Bartleson, Behne, Black, Boggs, Brewer, Cowan, Huber, Kennedy, Kilpatrick, Muhlback Schott, Smith of Morrow, Stambaugh, Thomas, Taylor, Walling, Warnes, Winters—18.

Republicans: Bartsch, Bonnell, Brehm, Canfield, Cathon, Cooper, Crist, Ellis, Fulkerson, Guard, Guweiler, Jenkins, Jones, Lamb, Morris, Plank, Ratliff, Riddle, Smith of Muskingum, Tredick, Vaughan, Whitmore, Wilber, Winans, Woodsworth—26.

Yeas—Democrats: Bartfield, Bell, Billingslea, Bour, Browder, Combs, Crawford, Day, Donson, Evans of Stark, Finley, Frick, Fulton, Gardner, Gebhart, Greaves, Horwitz, Irvin, Leathers, Lorenz, Nye, Roth, Shanley, Smith of Butler, Welsh, Woodrow, Wyman—27.

Republicans: Calvey, Colter, Evans of Cuyahoga, Reynolds—4.

Independent—Hillenkamp—1.

Granville, April 14.—Denison women, as well as the Denison men, are fast taking places of prominent workers in all lines. Mrs. Elizabeth Shepard Hopley, 71, is one of these. She is a daughter of Thomas J. Shepard, 73, and after her graduation from Denison took her degree from the Chicago kindergarten training school. She is the wife of James R. Hopley, postmaster at Bayview. Mrs. Hopley is one of the leading club women of Ohio. This year she has been appointed by the Russell Sage foundation to investigate industrial schools for girls, and she is a most interesting speaker on the work in which she is engaged.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. Witter of Boston. Mrs. Witter, who has been seriously ill for two years, was the mother of Margie Witter, ex-11. She has the sympathy of her many Granville friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Coates, of Springfield, O., who have been visiting relatives and friends here for a few days, returned home Thursday night.

"Showman Heights," the new addition laid out on the Showman farm, west of Newark, in the Cherry Valley, promises to be the most attractive suburban residence district in the vicinity of Newark. The addition is building up very rapidly now, and already a number of new residences are being built this spring.

Mr. Canby of Denver, Colo., was called here to attend the funeral of Rev. L. N. Carman, who was killed in Rochester, N. Y., last Sunday night, by being struck by an automobile.

Telephone wires have been strung along the T. and O. C. railway with a view of doing away with the telegraph, as far as train orders are concerned. It is thought that the telephone system will be in operation by the first of July. The telephone will be used for directions for the running of trains, while the telegraph will still be used for messages.

Jerry O'Brien, who for a number of years has been roadmaster on the Bucyrus-Thurston division of the T. and O. C. railway, recently resigned his position to accept a position with the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern railway, as foreman of the yards at Gary, Ind., the town of steel industry fame. Mr. O'Brien has been in the employ of the T. and O. C. since 1909, and his many friends will be glad to know of this change which practically amounts to a promotion.

The remains of Mrs. Louisa Corbin, the aged mother of Mrs. E. J. Case, of Granville, were laid to rest in the Croton cemetery, on Sunday, she having died at New Bethel. Although she had been housed with rheumatism for several years, she maintained a cheerful disposition, seldom complaining. Her demise will cast a shadow over the entire community where she lived. ## DON'T BE MISLED

Stomach Trouble Often Presents Symptoms That May Be Mistaken for Signs of Other Disorders.

Palpitation of the heart does not imply that the vital organ is diseased. Pain in the back does not necessarily mean kidney disease. Headache does not often indicate that there is anything wrong with your head.

All of these symptoms are caused by gastric trouble and when this is the case, the remedy is to be found in the stomach. It is not a matter of life or death, but a matter of comfort and health. Do not let a little stomach trouble grow into a big one. Get it right now.

CURES CATARRH

Also Coughs, Colds, Croup and Sore Throat.

Evans' drug store guarantees HYOMEL (pronounce it High-o-mel) to cure catarrh, acute or chronic; to cure colds, coughs, croup and sore throat, or money back.

In cases of deafness caused by catarrh there is no remedy so efficient. HYOMEL is a liquid extracted from the eucalyptus trees of Australia and is a soothing, healing, germ killing antiseptic.

A complete HYOMEL outfit consisting of a bottle of HYOMEL and an indestructible hard rubber pocket inhaler costs $1.00. For treating catarrh or any throat or nose ailment pour a few drops into the inhaler and breathe.

That's all you have to do and as the air passes through the inhaler it becomes impregnated with antiseptic HYOMEL, and this soothing healing air as it passes into the lungs reaches every particle of inflamed membrane, kills the germs and heals the raw, sore, catarrhal spots.

If you now own a HYOMEL inhaler you can buy an extra bottle of HYOMEL for only 50 cents at Evans' drug store or druggists' everywhere. Free sample trial treatment from Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Why buy elsewhere when you can buy the only genuine "Cravenette" Hat for $3.00. Soft or Derby. at MITCHELL & MIRACLE'S. 14d2

SENATORS

Sullivan, New Hampshire; Utter, Rhode Island.

Democrats—McDermott, Illinois. Former Speaker Cannon, Republican leader Mann, and others of the Republicans who voted against the measure declared its form was such as to threaten the federal government with loss of control over senatorial elections, given to safeguard the integrity of these elections.

They insisted, as did other Republicans, who ultimately voted for the resolution, that the direct election amendment should be offered without any language attached that might be dangerous to the future congressional supervision of senatorial elections.

Democratic leaders declare that the Rucker resolution was open to no such construction, and that it offered the most nearly perfect constitutional amendment that could be devised. An amendment offered by Representative Young of Michigan, adding language that resembled that of the Sutherland amendment adopted in the senate two months ago, was defeated by a party vote, 121 to 190. The Republican insurgents, led by Lenroot and Cooper of Wisconsin, forced a record vote on the final passage of the resolution. The house voted overwhelmingly in favor of the measure when Speaker Clark called for the viva voce vote, but the insurgents demanded a roll call in order to put the house on record on the subject. The Democrats quickly seconded this demand.

It was a day of lively debate. Practically every man who spoke favored the direct election amendment. The differences arose mainly over the form of the resolution, and the constitutional argument of whether the powers of the federal government were in any way threatened.

New members jumped into the fray with enthusiasm. Representative LaFollette of Oregon was a prominent figure among these and told the house at the beginning that he was an insurgent Republican prepared to support any good measure without regard to politics. He sided with the Republican forces in urging modification of the amendment.

Representative O'Shaughnessy, a newly elected Democrat from Rhode Island, informed the house that the legislature of Rhode Island did not represent the people of that state; that his state was the victim of "archaic laws and a moribund constitution," and that he hoped that the amendment for direct election of senators would be "a short cut across lots that would give the people of poor, down-trodden Rhode Island those privileges that had been taken away from them by a moth-eaten charter."

Representative Titter, a new Republican from the same state, replied that Rhode Island did not need defense. Representative Baker of California, Tribune of Georgia and other new members figured in the debate.

PAINLESS FEET

Newark is Full of Them Since Evans' Drug Store Commenced to Sell Ezo.

There is no reason on earth why anyone should suffer another day with painful, swollen, burning feet or foot misery of any kind, when a large jar of Ezo costs but 25 cents at Evans' drug store.

Not a powder, mind you, to clog up the pores, but a soothing, healing refined ointment that takes out all pain and soreness, and leaves the feet feeling fine and comfortable.

Your feet may be so sore that you cannot walk on them tonight, rub on Ezo and you will enjoy a walk tomorrow morning.

Use Ezo for sore corns, for disagreeable bunions; use it when breaking in new shoes or before dancing.

Very pleasant refined ointment is Ezo, and there is nothing better for sunburn, rough skin, blackheads, eczema or itching skin.

O. S. U. GLEE CLUB

(Exchange.)

The Ohio State University glee club added fresh laurels to those with which they have been repeatedly crowned this season at their initial appearance before a Washington audience Friday night at the Empire theatre. They were greeted by a representative audience of the musical and society element of our city and the enthusiastic plaudits which called forth humorous and taking encores testified to their general approval.

An unusual amount of illness and trouble here somewhat depleted the audience in size, but it is undoubtedly true that were the club to make a return date their delightful program of last night would insure a very large house.

The chorus of thirty-five excellent voices, ringing with college spirit and life, is an exceptionally good one and the ensemble work was beautifully done.

The quartet, Messrs. Boesel, Smith, Simon and Sims, was notably fine, as was also the soloist, R. A. Shappell. The mandolin club added pretty, catchy numbers.

The program was so different from anything that has been given here that it was a real treat. Those who heard the club are hoping to hear it again and those who did not are hoping for a future opportunity.

The glee and mandolin club will give a concert tonight at the high school auditorium for the benefit of the United Sunday Schools' Athletic association.

Destroys Liquor Craving

Drunkennes is a progressive disease; the moderate drinker is not satisfied with two or three drinks a day, the craving for more and more becomes irresistible as the disease advances; the result is Chronic Alcoholism.

The treatment used successfully by thousands right in their own homes is Orpine. It is sold with the understanding that if it does not benefit after a trial, we refund your money.

Orpine No. 1, is the perfect remedy; Orpine No. 2, is for those willing to take the treatment. Either form costs $1. Write for free booklet on Alcoholism. The Orpine Company, Orpine Building, Washington, D. C. Sold by leading druggists, and in this city by Hall's Drug store, No. 19 N. 8th Square.

DESCENDANTS OF OHIO GOVERNORS

Where are the sons and daughters of the governors of Ohio? This question is being asked by the Ohio-Columbus centennial commission, which has started to locate the direct descendants of every man who ever acted as chief executive of the state of Ohio. The purpose of this is to have all living descendants of the chief executives invited to a special celebration during the centennial.

Pennsylvania Laid Off Men. BUREAU. Telegraph. Twenty-three men, which would be about one hundred and thirty men, of the Pennsylvania railroad system were laid off at Crestline this morning. This affects mostly the eastern division of the railroad. Several of the yard engines in the Crestline yards were sidetracked this morning and will remain stationary for some time. The reasons for laying off so many men is because the work of the railroad has been very slack, the past few months, with no signs of increase. It is probable that a part of these crews will be replaced in a few weeks.

New York City has nightly more theatre attendants than any other city in the world.
